

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR.

Barton, Vt., July 16, 1894.

PROBATE COURTS.

Probate Courts will be held at the Probate Office in Newbury, Monday, at the office of F. W. Baldwin at Barton on the second Friday of each month, and at the office of O. S. Annis at North Troy in the forenoon of the first Friday of each month, and at the office of B. F. D. Carpenter at Barton Landing in the forenoon of the third Friday of each month. Parties having business with Court at North Troy, Barton or Barton Landing concerning pending estates will please inform the Court in advance that they may take the necessary papers with him.

F. E. ALFRED, Judge of Probate.

Regular convocation of Orient Chapter, O. E. S., No. 13, at Masonic Hall, Friday evening, July 20. It is desired that a large number will be present as there is work to be done.

A very bad week for hay making but a good week for grass growing. Much more grass has been cut in this vicinity than in the western part of the state, and the crop is better here than there.

Chas. Cheney has rented and taken possession of the Crystal Lake House. Mr. Cheney has had experience in the hotel business and will keep a good house. He deserves a share of the public's patronage.

We understand that there has been an unusual call for boarding places for those who intend to be present during the Summer School here. The prospect is good for a pleasant and profitable term.

Missionary day at the Congregation church next Sabbath. Rev. G. H. Guttererson, District Secretary of the American Missionary Association, will address the people on the work of the Society, morning and evening. All are invited to attend.

State Superintendent M. S. Stone has decided to hold the meeting of the county school directors at this place on Thursday, July 26. Meeting to be held in the academy building. It is hoped that every director in the county will be present at this meeting.

B. M. R. Nelson of this village has been mentioned as a candidate for the position of "side judge." He is a man of excellent business judgment. There seems but little to add to what has been already stated in this paper, in regard to political matters in the county.

G. M. Jerome, who is at North Hatley, P. Q., running the lake steamer, "Mayflower," on the Mississippi, as captain, writes us that the scenery on the lake is very beautiful and there are several hundred city people about the lake and that business is good there at present. Round trip tickets for ten persons could be obtained from this place for about $2.00.

Mrs. John Smith and son of Lynn, Mass., are spending a few days in town on a visit. Mrs. Lucy Reed, who has been in Massachusetts several weeks, has returned home. John Reed, who has also been in Mass. on a visit, came home with her. Mrs. Frank Lovewell is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Colliston. Mrs. Geo. Tower and daughter, who have been in Cambridge with Mr. Tower several weeks, have returned home.

There will be an excursion from this place to the Mountain House, Lake Memphremagog, on Friday next, leaving this station at 8:10 a. m., arriving home at 8 p. m. It will be under the auspices of the young people's societies of the churches here and will include the Sunday schools and all friends who desire to go. Round trip fare: Adults, 70 cents; children, 45 cents. Picnic baskets will be taken. The children will be carefully looked after.

Ten of the young ladies of the Cong. Society are preparing an entertainment to be given at Seaver's Opera House on the evening of July 27. This entertainment consists of music and tableaux, representing by costume and position scenes of the Greece and Italy of two thousand years ago. These tableaux are to be given from a dark background aided by colored lights. No curtain or stage appointments are made use of, the entire grouping of the statuary being given in full view of the audience.

Some one sends the MONITOR quite a lengthy account of the marriage of Miss Fannie A. Kimball of Greenfield, Mass., daughter of Geo. W. Kimball, for some years a resident of this village. Fannie won the first prize in the first baby show ever held at Barton fair, and, we doubt not, her husband, Mr. Frank Logan, wins the first prize in this contest. The letter gives an account of the elaborate trimming and adornment of the residence of the bride's parents, the pleasing wedding ceremony, and enumerates the various gifts made to the bride.

"Men of Vermont," a volume containing sketches and biographies of about 1200 Vermonters, published by the Transcript Publishing Co. of Brattleboro is out and is being distributed among subscribers. It is a book of interest, both on account of the biographies and the many excellent portraits it contains. The volume contains sketches of the Fathers, Governors, Senators, Representatives in Congress, Judges of the Supreme Court, Inventors, Queer Characters, besides the biographies of many living Vermonters who have purchased a place in the book.

The community is again saddened by the death of one who has held a large place in the esteem of the people, Mrs. J. A. Pearson. She has been in delicate health for some years, seemingly predisposed to paralysis. Some three weeks since she fell from a hammock, receiving quite a serious jar or injury and lay some days in a very critical condition. Later she was attacked with measles and died on Tuesday last. She was the daughter of the late Jesse Alden, and makes another in quite a long list of members of the family who have passed away within the last few years. She leaves a husband and two children. Mr. Pearson has had much trouble from severe sickness in his own family and was only recently called upon to bury his father. He has the sympathy of many friends. The funeral was held on Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Swain officiating. The Eastern Star members were at the cemetery in a body. The floral emblems showed the desire of many to pay a tribute to the departed.

Barton Landing.
E. D. Stafford and family are camping at Willoughby.

A regular meeting of Meade Post and Corps will be held Tuesday, July 17, at 2 p. m.

Maynard Skinner is home from Springfield, owing to a shut down at the machine shop at which he is at work.

Rev. J. S. Allen of Albany gave an excellent sermon at the M. E. church yesterday, in exchange with Rev. Mr. Wright.

The Junior C. E. Society will give a reception to the Y. P. So., and other friends next Thursday evening in the Cong. vestry. A short entertainment will be given, also ice cream and cake furnished.

The excursion advertised to leave Barton at 8:10 next Friday morning will include the people from this place, who are cordially invited by their Barton friends. Round trip fare, we understand, is 55 cents for adults, 35 for children.

A rich entertainment was enjoyed July 4, in the Loan Exhibition held at the Cong. church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Much credit is due the committee who spared no pains to make it a success. The vestry was literally filled with articles from new to 200 years old, arranged with great taste and skill. Stuffed birds and animals in great variety, largely from Hildreth's collection, minerals, war relics, fancy work, old china, linen, etc. The audience room was transformed into an art gallery. The walls were lined with beautiful paintings, groups filled the orchestra and in every nook and corner some specimen of skillful handiwork was seen. A botanical collection of our native wild flowers, in water colors, attracted much attention. These and many other paintings were kindly loaned by Miss Eaton, whose aid was greatly appreciated. A fine literary and musical program in the evening completed the entertainment. The ladies are to be congratulated on having made it a financial success as well as a pleasant and profitable way of celebrating the Fourth.

This town seems to be quite noted as a summer resort. In addition to the other pleasure parties which have been stopping at the Eagle Hotel, they now have guests from Mass., Conn. and New York.

A little daughter of Homer Bartlett ate a quantity of Paris green recently, getting at the poison while her father was using the sprinkler. She is still alive, but a great sufferer; she is liable, however, to recover.

James Livingstone's Novelty Company are stopping at the Orleans House. They have given entertainments at Academy hall and other places in town and surrounding towns. As a concert and novelty company it is not excelled by any troupe of its numbers that has ever visited town. Derby.

Last Thursday night, Cooper's hotel at Rock Island, P. Q., was broken into and a large quantity of liquor stolen. The officers got clues that led them to look in this direction and they learned that a team had been hired of Alfred Chandler of this place by Ezra Jewell of Derby and John Longeway of Barton, which was not returned as promised and they found that these parties were probably the thieves. Jewell was found intoxicated and was arrested, tried and fined for this offense and will probably go to Rutland to work out his fine. We hear that Longeway peddled out his liquor on the road and was arrested at Barton and will be taken across the line for trial. It looks as though two undesirable characters would be placed where they will have opportunity to earn their board for some time hence.

Glover.
Dr. W. F. Templeton is expected this week, and will go into camp at Stone Pond.

H. W. Phillips has rented his house to city boarders and expects it will be filled this week.
